

I would like to apologize for the confusion. Early last year, I was informed of what the theme was supposed to be, but unfortunately that information was not correct. Please note that the photo of the pin showing the correct theme is on the website. Please accept my apology. If you have your shirts, you are still welcome to enter the contest. We hope you'll come out and have fun!

Thank you,

Judy Geer

